FOR PRESIDENT,

That uncorrupted King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Harris—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

GEN. WM. T. SHERMAN has been elected President of the Society of the Army of Tennessee.

Now Judge Harlan will want to run for President, for dissenting in the Civil Service decision.

The Democratic party in Iowa more than doubled its vote at the State election on the 8th instant.

Pittsburg teachers had to slog 359 pupils during September. The underbrush about Pittsburg must be giving out.

The Woman's Rights Suffrage Bill has passed the lower house of the Washington Territory Legislature.

Gov. BUTLER says he will be re-elected by 40,000 majority. Senator Hoar has yet time to leave the State.

FIFTY-FIVE murders have occurred in Logan county in eighteen years, eight of them within the last ten months.

The new crop of geese must have had no bones in them this year—so far no one has prognosticated the weather on a goose bone.

O'DONELL has been indicted for the murder of Cary, the informer. He pleads not guilty and his trial has been postponed until Nov. 21st.

The next Congress, which will meet on the 4th of December, will contain 194 Democrats 131 Republicans, readjusters, independents and greenbackers.

DAVID DAVIS gives it as his opinion that the Republican organization will break up if defeated next year, and he sees nothing but defeat before it.

This is indeed a fast age in which we live. Last week a couple in Indiana got married on a railroad train, and a Virginia woman had a baby on a train in this State.

NOVEMBER 6th elections will be held in Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, Virginia, and Minnesota.

The Insurance companies threaten to avoid Atlanta unless the City Council increases the efficiency of the Fire Department. In the last two years the insurance men claim to have paid $540,000 in losses on property in that city.

GON. BUTLER has aroused a sleeping lion by dismissing a lady from the State Board of Health, Finance and Charity, upon the ground that a woman is not legally a "person." After this he will hardly have the assurance to run for the Presidency.

THE chicken is a gay bird, and the prospects are that it will have a good deal of crowing to do during the next twelve months. Push us to the wall, and we will reproduce the chicken that shook the Constitution's presses the day after it was ascertained that Mr. Tilden was really elected.—[Atlanta Constitution.]

Out of fifty-five persons who have been tried at Russellville within the last eighteen years, for murder or homicide, not a solitary offender has been hanged by law, and but two have been sentenced to life imprisonment. Certainly the law of capital punishment is a dead letter, and it ought to be abolished.

"GATH," the Republican correspondent of the Enquirer who threw the New York Democracy against us in 1880, now says that New York is getting ready for another Waterloo like that of Ohio, and attributes the downfall of that party to the error that it committed immediately after the war, in supporting the corrupt tariff system—in other words, the Republican party will die of too much protection.

SENATOR BROWN, President of the State Road of Georgia, and the head of new Georgia Railroad syndicate, has taken a very sensible view of railroadings since the recent ruling of the Supreme Court on the Civil Service Bill. He has ordered that all colored passengers conveyed on his road, who buy first-class tickets, shall have first-class coaches just as good as those used by whites, but that they must ride by themselves. The whites will not be allowed to intrude on them, nor they on the whites. This is fair and square, and no more should be asked or granted.

Millersburg (War) Department.

Morris McClelland, colored, died last week.

Wesley Corrington is very ill with consumption.

Willie Victor has purchased the tin-shop from Arthur Long.

The man who "just knowed all about it" has returned from the bush.

Miss Mattie Swonger has been employed as trimmer by Mrs. Belle Taylor.

John Taylor, the too too; the Ol how are you; the yum! yum! was here Lord's day.

Joe Sanduskey and S. Smith caught six coons, two possums and a rabbit from one tree.

Charlie Clark bought a wagon load of Irish potatoes in Paris, Saturday, at 25 cents a bushel.

The jubilant coon craps shooters have suspended for a few days, out of respect for the grand jury.

Several men went up from here to Paris, Saturday, to hear the "tall sycamore," from the Wabash.

H. H. Hunt has gone to Florida to buy up all the fruit. Later—He's thinking of going.

The prospects of Amos Jameson being nominated for the office of County Judge by the Democrats is not very encouraging.

John Foster writes back from England that he longs for "sweet Ameriky" and as soon as possible will leave the land of "oppression."

Harlan Vimont has decided to enter his preponderant and influential dog at the Louisville Exposition. Certainly that perpendicular tail and majestic stride will win the blue.

Dr. J. Galbraith, president of Dublin (Ireland) University, is the guest of Dr. A. G. Stitt. It is the gentleman's first trip over, and the greatness of the country overcomes him.

Some of the young girls in town don't behave very well in church and their mothers would do the proper thing should they accompany those girls to church or keep them at home.

The dirty panderers, Sallie Ball and Matt Johnson, must go. An outraged public has said it and the Department confirms it. Tar and feathers are plentiful, while the creek is not far remote.

While New York is fighting church bells, this town ought to put in a few shots at the miserable old clankity cow bells used by the hotels to induce a half dozen boarders to come in and partake of hash.

This city has no more right to obstruct a street with a "cage" than with a band of soldiers. The present location of the cage is a very unfavorable one and people residing in that vicinity should rise up and demand its removal.

Mr. Robt. A. Thompson, of near Headquarters, did not marry his daughter, Miss Jennie I. Thompson, as reported in the Kentucky Supplement Saturday; but she married a man by the name of Boyce, from Louisville.

The boys justly complain that certain old bald heads who break the ten commandments without intermission, are always the first to have them brought before the grand jury for their little frolics. In the future the bald heads will be watched and made to account for all waywardness.

Such peculiar weather begets trouble. Not many days since one lad and three pretty lassies got in one side-bar buggy and "went for a ride." The buggy broke down; so they would have walked back to town had not Lee Miller their dilemma espied and come to the front with his rockaway.

Last Saturday, as little Fay Thornton was riding along about a mile from town he fell from his horse and had nearly the calf of one leg torn off by the horse stepping on him. While lying on the roadside several heartless fellows passed by and refused him assistance. Mrs. America Nichols carried him to D. McKee's house and summoned a doctor.

Have you seen that dingy looking arrangement in the City Park? Of course you have. Well that's an alleged photo gallery. Do you not think the city council should be thumped for permitting such things in the park? You do! so do all good citizens; because, my boy the council has no power to rent that park. Some of these fine evenings they will be taken to court there to show "cause why" they acted thusly.

Last evening the North bound passenger train ran over and terribly mangled little Willie Todd. The boy and several companions were playing upon the track and did not notice the approach of the train. No one but the mother who permitted the boy to visit the depot and act like a Sioux Indian can be blamed for the occurrence. Such such an item as the above will appear in this column unless children are kept away from the depot.

Read the following: The Department does not seek to offend without cause; it simply strives to give the news in a readable manner. In doing this it must, of necessity, cause some to grow angry—in fact awful angry. But don't forget that the Department is not elated by praise nor awed by censure. It careeth not a continental who putteth on war paint so Truth was the provocation. It maketh merry over the fools who swear they'll publish "secret history," for it knoweth all have unburied ghosts and is aware where most of these ghosts perambulate. Let us thank God we are living and not strive to kill. Selah!

The following communication left at this office for publication, explains itself to the people of Millersburg people:

uncle brother bare as you are not worth nothing I will let this pass I find your tung can run faster than I can play lether britches on my violan. If I had you to biab and lye I would not have any yonse for a fiddle. I beleav you love negro woman pretty well. a man that is borned of a woman and will offer to try and slander one of his mothers own sect will do eny thing the idia colerd lady

POSTED—Notice is hereby given that I posted my farm, adjoining Millersburg, according to all the forms of law, and all persons are forbidden to hunt or fish or trespass in any way on said farm. I will enforce the law against all offenders—WHITE and BLACK.
-Oct 17th 1883. ALLEN MCCLINTOCK

It is a mistake to suppose that the frolicsome cyclone has hunted winter quarters. A Texas freight train was gently lifted from the track Friday and converted into kindling wood.

The Mt. Olivet Democrat, a bold, dashing and independent paper, is just now giving the magistrates of Robertson a good railing for selling a turnpike and for some other little underhand work. Among the many little spats given them is this: "One more dose of old rooster soup and Sticklewhisky, and the magistrates will sell the county."

Law cuts many peculiar capers in its rolings. It appears that the intent of the law is to screen the guilty on every vital point instead of making a thorough investigation for the truth wherever it may be found. Its rulings are to give the prisoner the full benefit of all the doubts, and then turn him over to a doubtful jury for justice. In the minds of the masses, the law is a peculiar and a very doubtful resort for justice—hence, the constantly growing spirit of resorting to mob violence everywhere.

The "Tall Sycamore's" great speech in the defense of Hooker Stivers here Saturday was a bouquet of slush-gush pleas for sympathy, based on the presumption that Kentucky jury-men were a set of self-esteemed fools, who would drink in any amount of Southern chivalry gush and fill up on vanity instead of doing their duty. He alluded to "Our own Breckinridge at Stone River and Bragg at Chica-maunga" in a truly sickening, demagoguery style, utterly disgusting even to many brave followers of the lost cause. It was dished out in such style as to convey to true men, "will you sell out principle for gush?" He also had a slang bombshell phrase which he took so much stock in as to reiterate it half a dozen times. For keen cutting, deep, effect, his speech was a school boy's as compared to that of Commonwealth's Attorney Bronston's.

COMMUNICATED.

Mt. Olivet, Ky., Oct. 20th 83.
EDITOR OF NEWS:—The Maysville Republican states in its last issue that I resorted to the illegal proceeding of trying to swear the magistrates off the bench in the Rogers case. That statement needs an explanation.

Both the magistrates sitting in the case had expressed themselves that Rogers was justifiable in the killing, and I had many other good reasons to know that the Commonwealth could not relieve at their hands a fair trial. I had them both summoned to testify on behalf of the Commonwealth, having as one of my reasons for so doing that they might retire without any mortification, and with credit to themselves. The opportunity was not accepted by either. Believing that they would not retire, I made, to defendant's counsel, a proposition, owing to the general belief, and my own belief that Mr. Rogers would be "white-washed" if he was tried before that Court, that we would agree to let two good unbiased Justices try the case, against whom there could be no objection. This proposition was promptly refused by the leading counsel for the defendant. Seeing that the magistrates were determined to stick, and that the defendant was determined to have them stick, I then offered to file affidavit stating that the Commonwealth could not get a fair trial at the hands of that Court, still hoping that the magistrates would take the hint and that decency would persuade them to retire from a seat that they had disgraced. The filing of the paper was refused. I then of to file my grounds to dismiss the case; this the court refused to file. I then moved to dismiss the case, and strange to relate, the defendant objected to being released, this objection the court sustained. I refused to introduce any evidence before a court that I had sworn would do the plaintiff injustice. The result was a "dead lock." I did not wish to do anything illegal or do Sam Rogers a single injustice, but I did not propose to give him the prestige of an acquittal at the hands of a packed court.

If he had as good a case as his attorneys claim for him, I could see no wrong in having it investigated before an impartial tribunal, nor the object he had in holding with such tenacity to the court against which there were such serious objections.

Respectfully,
WINFIELD BUCKLER.
